

TOM COLEMAN

Demonstration Workshop:

March 16 – 17, 2013

First Day:

1. A slide show of past and present work.
2. A brief history of his involvement with porcelain as a medium.
3. A demonstration of throwing several different forms and creating altered pieces.
4. Throwing functional forms.
5. An ongoing discussion and demonstration of different decorating techniques and glazes

Second Day:

1. Assembling the pieces produced the day before.
2. A discussion on various ways of formulating porcelain clay bodies and slips.
3. A brief discussion on how to approach marketing your work.
4. A discussion on how to take good professional quality photographs of your work for consideration in magazines, books, and entry in fairs and shows.
5. Tom's approach and general philosophy on working as a clay artist for the last 45 years.

Sponsored By:

18 Hands Gallery

249B W 19th Street, Houston, TX 77008

phone: 713.869.3099

email: info@18handsgallery.com

www.18handsgallery.com

Location of Workshop: The Ceramic Store

1002 W. 11th Street; Houston, TX 77008

713-864-6442

Cost of Workshop:

$275

Checks Payable To: 18 Hands Gallery

Cancellation Policy:

Cancel before 2/1: $35 processing fee

Cancel after 2/1: no refund

Saturday,

March 16th, 10AM-4PM

Location: The Ceramic Store

Opening Reception 6PM-9PM

Location: 18 Hands Gallery

Sunday,

March 17th, 10AM-4PM

Location: The Ceramic Store